

CREATIVE ABSTRACT COMPETITION

ISIE 2023 Leiden

Submission Guidelines and Rules for ISIE 2023 "Creative Abstract Competition"

1. Eligibility:
 - o Entrants must be registered presenters of the ISIE 2023 conference
2. Theme:
 - o The entry must be directly related to the entrant's research being presented at ISIE.
3. Entry Types:
 - o The entry can be in the form of text, image, video, audio, or a physical work.
 - o The entry should be developed for a maximum of one minute of engagement.
4. Submission:
 - o Entrants must submit their entry through the digital submission system. provided by the competition (physical entries can be depicted in a video or a series of photos).
 - o Entrants must include their scientific ISIE abstract in their submission.
 - o Entries must be submitted before the competition deadline.
5. Assessment Criteria:
 - o Entries will be assessed on creativity, innovation, relevance to the scientific abstract and the quality of the submission.
 - o The judging panel's decision is final, as is that of the popular vote.
6. Intellectual Property:
 - o Entrants must hold the copyright for their entries.
 - o Entrants retain all rights to their entry.
 - o By submitting an entry, entrants grant permission to the competition organizers to use and reproduce the entry in any media related to the competition, including but not limited to the conference website, social media, and print materials.
7. Winner Selection:
 - o The shortlist will be selected by the judging panel based on the assessment criteria.
 - o The winners will be selected from the shortlist by popular vote of ISIE attendees through an online voting system.
 - o Winners will be announced during the closing ceremony at the conference.
8. Prizes:
 - o Prize details will be announced closer to the competition deadline.

By following these guidelines and rules, entrants can ensure their entry meets the competition requirements and is assessed fairly.